

Indiana's privacy law has given me a lot of peace and quiet from unwanted calls. It's been very effective. Please don't weaken the law - I don't want those people to start calling again. Lots of people signed up as soon as the law was passed, before the state even started telling people about it - it's a very popular law.